Rotary Exchange
Students Part Deux

Haley Bowen and Haley Houseman spoke of their respective trips to Belgium and India. Both of them were very lovely as they spoke on their trips abroad. Bill Beckman mooching in on the photo at left. A Rotary first!! Bea Augusto of Brazil was skyped live into our lunch meeting. She was very excited and was presented with a bracelet with a panther paw, that will be delivered via her prom date from Cambridge. it was a very nice presentation.

President Jo received a banner from visiting Rotarians Joseph and Sandra Sgroi from Smithtown, N.Y. For those of you who don't know where Smithtown is, it's on Lawng Island. Yes it is spelled the way it is pronounced.

Now that we have the base painting done and roughed in, lets try some blending to make the art speak. Always remember art is a way to search for truth, not make pretty pictures for the bourgeois class to discuss over cocktails and pate.

Last week at the Beverly Rotary Club...

The meeting was called to order by President Jo Broderick and opened with the Pledge of Allegiance led by Dianne Palter Gill. Bill Beckman led the Club in singing "America the Beautiful." Jack Good led the Club in prayer.

Announcements:

- * Sarah MacBurnie announced our visiting Rotarians and guests:
- * Visiting Rotarians Joseph and Sandra Sgroi from Smithtown, N.Y.
- * Meg Kelley, guest of Don Kelley
- * Liam Cahill, guest of Ed Cahill
- * Ann Marie Handly, guest of Marshall Handly
- * Haley Bowen of the Rotary Youth Exchange and her parents Allen Bowen and Kate Shea
- * Haley Houseman of the Rotary Youth Exchange and her parents Debbie DelVecchio and Scott Houseman

* A card was circulated for Jim Davies who was having surgery.

* President Jo announced that the August 5th Club meeting will be held at Lynch Park. Board members should arrive for an 11:30 meeting with the District Governor who will be visiting us that day.

* A challenge was issued by the Danvers Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs for a bocce tournament on the evening of August 2nd.

* A thank you card was received from Bill Scotti for a clock the Club awarded to him for all of his years as a member.

Kevin Kelleher sent word that there would be no sergeant today. Instead, a raffle was held – the prize being four lobsters delivered to your home on Saturday by Kevin.

Speakers:

- Bill Beckman introduced our speakers:
- * Haley Bowen spent last year in Brussels, Belgium. She spoke about the political tension in the country between the Dutch-speaking north and French-speaking south. She described her host family. She also described the beauty of the country and the many opportunities she had to travel throughout Europe. Haley thanked the Club for its support.
 - * We participated in a Skype conversation with Bea Augusto from Brazil. Bea was delighted to see the members in the room and thanked the Club for her past year in Beverly.

* Haley Houseman spent her year in Rajkot, Gujarat in the northwest corner of India. Haley spoke of the beauty and variety of cultures, ethnic groups and languages in India. She was especially impressed by the art throughout the different parts of the country. She also described the several host families she stayed with and thanked the Club for its support.

Raffle

Jay Walsh won the lobsters. The weekly raffle winner did not select the winning card.

Respectfully submitted by
 Ed Cahill
